HAPPENINGS AND PERSONAL MENTION

Fred Green of Grandin was in the

Mrs. George E. Gay entertained the Luncheon Bridge Club Wednesday

Max Melzer, an old and respected resident of Fruitland, was a visitor in the city on Wednesday.

W. H. McBride and George Prevatt, two of the leading men of Seville, spent Monday evening in the city.

Victor Carrier, one of the successful citrus fruit growers of Crescent City, spent the day in town on Wed-

"Billie" Parker of Pennsylvania, walked jauntily.

Miss Inez Barron of DeLand is the guest of Miss Irene Gardner through the week attending upon the Martin-Barstow nuptials. Miss Mamie Evans returned Thursday from the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee, and with her mother will occupy the Usina flats for the summer. Rain which came down in torrents put an end to the Palatka-Welaka baseball game last Tuesday fternoon in the fifth inning, with the score standing 7 to 4 in favor of the Palat-

The steamer Harry Lee left port on Wednesday for Mobile, Alabama, Capt. Hiscock, in command. Friends of this well-known steamer and its owner regretted much the departure.

Palatka Moose excursioned to Jacksonville last Sunday on the steamer the wedding of their daughter Katie, Crescent. The Jacksonville Moose to Mr. Albert O. Martin, with a picwill come to Palatka on an excursion one week from next Sunday, and will likely bring a big crowd.

Col. and Mrs. H. M. de Montmollin entertained a few friends Tuesday evening with a turkey dinner. The guests were Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Al-ford, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Lan-sing and Mrs. E. W. Warren.

Jack Becks may have been defeated for the county commissionership, but he's still the big cheese in the local democracy by reason of his ability to der. hold his place on the State executive committee. He will hold until his successor qualifies, which cannot be under two years.

Flag Day was observed in Palatka conspicuously before their stores, and good that every day ought to be pro-clamed a Flag Day.

Few of Them:

Goss Mattox of Bostwick was in the city yesterday. Capt. John Dallow of Welaka has been with us again this week. The Monday Night Club met with Mrs. Alston R. Haile this week.

T. R. Higgins of Orange Springs is spending the week in the city a guest at the Saratoga Hotel.

Arthur Daugherty left Wednesday for Milwaukee where he will pursue a complete course in electrical en-

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Earle Tenny are spending a few days in Palatka after a week's honeymoon down the East Coast. Hon. F. J. Fearnside spent Wednesday in Jacksonville on business con-nected with the State Board of Health, of which he is president. right hand man of Sidneycatts, was a Monday night may take up the mat-visitor in Palatka last Friday. He ter of a Fourth of July celebration—and then again it may not. Jeff Doyle has moved his pool room from central Lemon street to the big room over E. E. Dodge's store for-merly occupied by the Palatka Busi-ness College. Plenty of room there.

ness College. A branch of the Gainesville agency of the Buick motor car has leased a store room in the Hickman-Kennerly building and will open the same as a show room the first of the coming month.

The Consolidated Woolen Mills Company on Lemon street, of which Mr. W. W. Waters is manager, has just received one of the famous Hoffman pressing machines with which to press garments sent to him for cleaning and pressing.

On Monday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barstow entertained all their house guests who had gathered for the wedding of their daughter Katie, nic party at Silver Lake. Swimming was enjoyed and a bountiful supper was provided.

At the regular meeting of Palatka Lodge, B. P. O. E. last Monday night the lodge presented to its retiring exalted ruler, W. C. Davis, a beautiful watch charm of chased gold holding an elks wisdom tooth. It is a very pretty emblem, and is suitably engrav-At the same meeting of the lodge six new members were initiated into the mysteries and benefits of the or-

John J. Murphy of the Florida that city ,and who became Mrs. Muridence, corner of Oak and Fifth street, many private residences being thus and will be at home to friends after decorated. That flag looks good, so good that every day ought to be pro-

June Bargains

EARNEST'S

Many Big Bargains Await You

at This Big Store. Here are a

ONE LOT FANCY VOILE DRESSES. 2.45

ONE LOT WHITE DRESSES, $4.00 to $10 values, go at $2.45 to ... 4.95

SPECIAL SHIRT WAIST VALUES, $1.95, $1.45, $1.25, 95c and 50c

36 in. FANCY BATISTE, 27 in. FANCY OR-

36 in. and 40 in. FANCY VOILES, BATISTE, WHITE GOODS, ETC. All 25c val-

36 in. and 40 in. FANCY VOILES, FANCY SWISS, FANCY SEED VOILES, SILK TISSUES, etc. Values to 45c. at 25c

The Earnest Co.

Palatka

GANDIES AND BATISTES and other values up to 15c, at ues at

TISSUES, etc. Values to 45c, at

36 in. WASH SILKS.

Values to $4 00, at

R. R. Brakeman is spending the week on his farm at Florahome

Dr. G. L. Sipprell of Florahome spent the day in the city, yesterday. C. E. O'Connor is now with the Putnam National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Grainger have taken a cottage on the beach for the

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. M. Earnest left esterday evening in an auto trip to the beach for a few days' rest. Palatka took the game from St. Augustine yesterday by a score of 2 to You may knock off yelling for Catts a few moments this morning and key your voice to Wilson and Marshall.

P. T. Barnum once said: "If you have nineteen dollars to put to use, The board of trade meeting next pay ten dollars for the article and nine dollars for the advertising. can out-talk any man but a printer. The man who talks every week to a thousand men, while I am talking to one, is the man I am afraid of, and I want to be his friend. The business man who does not advertise is a poor stick. Trade with the men who advertise if you want to get bargains and the worth of your money."

> Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kupperbusch, Sr., left last Sunday for White Springs, where they will enjoy a vacation of several weeks. Every one in Palatka will wish this worthy couple a delightful rest and a good time. Mr. Kupperbusch has been sticking pretty close to business during the past year and needed the rest. business has been placed in the hands of M. II. Martin during his absence, and Mr. Martin says that as all has een running well since Mr. Kupperbusch went away, and that he means te keep it running well, or better than well all the time he is gone, it is likely that "Charley" will take a good, long rest.

Miss Gardner Entertains.

Miss Irene Gardner entertained deightfully Friday afternoon with a piazza party in honor of Miss Katie Barstow and guests. The members of the North End and West End Card Clubs filled the tables. The score Clubs filled the tables. The score cards were most artistic, the hand painted designs being the work of Mrs. J. L. Burt. Punch was served luring eards, and at the afternoon's close, ice cream and cake were passed.

Birthday Party.

A surprise was perpetrated upon Farms & Homes, Inc., is expected home today from New York with his bride, who was Miss Jessica Poole of teenth birthday. Fifteen couples Fifteen couples gathered at his home to surprise him on Wednesday, most of the business phy on the 8th inst. They have semen displaying the Stars and Stripes cured a home at the R. H. Hanley rescess. Mrs. Daugherty had prepared all sorts of good things to eat, so that after an evening spent games and music and general merry making, the guests were treated to cakes, cream and sandwiches. ny lovely gifts were received by the surprised young host.

Lawn Fete For Woman's Club.

The Woman's Club is planning for series of lawn parties during the summer months to be given for the benefit of the building fund. The first lawn fete was given last evening in City Hall Park, where cream and cake were sold and a large number of the Club's friends came and availed themselves of the opportunity of adding their mite toward the new club house. Saturday night the ladies will have ice cream, cake, punch and coco cola tables and will sell soft drinks on the vacant lot next to Kalbfield's Grand. Portions of the street will be roped off for dancing. Several more features will be introduced and a liberal patron-

Saturday's Band Concert.

The usual Saturday night concert by the Second Regiment Band under direction of Prof. J. W. Chattaway, will be at the corner of Second and Lemon streets tomorrow night, when the following program will be render-

March—Imperial Potentate, Woods
Tango Argentino—"The Dream
Tango," Urial Davis,
Valse—"Iva," Chattaway,
One Step—"Loading up the Mandy Lee," Marshall,

Overture-"King Rose," Geo Barn-

Fox Trot-"Bugle Call Rag," Hu-ert Blake. Valse—"Alpine Sunset," K. L. King. Serenade—"Pleasant Dreams," Rip-Overture-"Home Circle," Schep-engriel. Southern Stars—Star Spangled

Mrs. Vickers Gives Unique Party.

Mrs. M. M. Vickers was the charming hostess Tuesday afternoon at a most unique and original "brides-maids' party." The guests included Mrs. Harwood Rosser of Jacksonville, formerly Miss Ethel Merryday of this city, and her bridesmaids who attended her at her wedding ten years ago, By a strange coincidence the ladies of the original wedding party, with the exception of Mrs. J. H. Randolph of Savannah, formerly Miss Blanche of Savannah, formerly Miss Blanche Crill, were all in Palatka, and Mrs. Vickers seized the opportunity to gather them together, and a most en-joyable affair resulted. The after-noon was spent most informally, talk-ing over the events of the fast flying years, recalling old memories, and enjoying the delightful hospitality of the hostess, who was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Ackerman, and sisters, Mrs. Bates and Mrs. Elliott, and fascinating little Miss Vickers. Deligious the ladies parted reluctantly after enjoying a most unusual afternoon.

"Just bear this in mind, my boy."

"You don't find any epitaph in any cemetery reading, 'Here lies a crackerjack pool player." - Detroit Free

Get acquainted with the Brown Service - it means Satisfact

$7.50

and the second

For a Whole Summer's Comfort

Isn't very much, is it, when you think of the warm days ahead? Three months of summer yet, and if you are going to swelter through it all in a heavy winter suit, don't blame us, for we've told you of the

Delightfully Comfortable KOOL KLOTH and PALM BEACHES

-the lightest wearables for summer.

Get into one right away and be a hot weather fan. Summer has no terrors for the Palm Beach or Kool Kloth wearer.

We Sell the Famou HOLEPROOF HOSIERY

-with a Guarantee.

The HOLEPROOF Brand mean the best in Hosiery. It means guarantee of six months wear, or a hole appears, a new pair. Yo don't have to send them to the many facturer either; bring them to us an we'll make it good.

In Silk, Silk Lisle, and Lisle heavy and light weights.

25c and 50c.

Remember

We Close Every Evening (Except Saturday) at 6:30

M.S. BROWN

Pleasing Particular People Makes Particular People Pleased With Our Meth

On That Holiday Jaunt Don't Forget To Take Plenty of

it's pure, wholesome and delicious. It reaches the spot

Martin-Barstow Wedding

A June wedding of much splendor, was solemnized Wednesday evening when before an assemblage of relatives and friends, Miss Katie Eileen Barstow, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barstow, was united to Mr. Albert Owens in marriage Martin of Jacksonville, at the family home, corner of Oak and Sixth

Miss Barstow's school flower was the daisy, and these lovely Shasta daisies, bamboo, and plumosa fern, formed the decorative scheme in the parlor and wedding room. The library and dining room were filled with roses and greenery. The punch bower was constructed o roses and pink tulle; the chancel arch was a most artistic creation of shasta daisies and plumosa, and myriads of small electric bulbs hidden among the ferns gave a fairyland appearance and were turned on just as the wed-ding party entered the parlors.

At eight o'clock the musical program began with a lovely violin duet by Miss Louise Boyd and Mr. Lew by Miss Louise Boyd and Mr. Lew Barstow, accompanied by Miss Maye Boyd. Then followed a vocal solo by Miss Inez Baron who gave a sympathetic rendition; Miss Louise Boyd followed with a violin solo and then Mrs. Alston R. Haile sang "The Barcarolle" with violin obligato by Lewington Barton unbid was beautiful ington Barstow, which was beautifully done. Mr. Harwood Rosser render-ed two violin numbers in his usual artistic manner with Mrs. Robert S.

O'Haver accompanist.

Promptly at 8:30 o'clock, to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march rendered by Miss Louise Boyd, Mr. Harwood Rosser and Lew Bar-stow with Miss Boyd at the piano, the two little ribbon bearers, Jacque-line Pursley and Veola Benbow, descended the stairs, dressed in white or-gandie with pink tulle bows; then followed Miss Irene Gardner with Marshall Martin, Miss Louiebelle Brown and Sherman Lloyd as brides maids and groomsmen. The maids maids and groomsmen. The maids costumes were pink taffeta veiled in pink chiffon, trimmed with lace and pink rose buds, carrying pink roses. Miss Winnifred Barstow, maid of honor, followed, dressed in a beautiful colonial creation of pink taffeta, with green chiffon, silver lace, and lavender chiffon flowers, carrying pink roses. Next came the petite and charming little Lillian Phillips as flower maid, carrying a gold basket of lillies of the valley. Her dress was of white organdie ruffes and chiffon trimmed with lillies of the valley and white tulle. The bride valley and white tulle. The bride followed, leaning on the arm of her ceived in the parlors. In the dining room where refreshments were served a la buffet. The ments were served a la buffet. The ments were served a la buffet. The wedding cake reposed in the center of the table and the artistic work on this beautiful cake was the concoction of Mr. Shaw. The dome over the cake was trimmed with pink tulle. Mr. and Mrs. Abre and Mrs. Abre and Mrs. Abre and Marshall Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Sham and Mrs. Abre and Marshall Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Abre and Marshall Ma followed, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. who read the Presbyterian service, and by the groom and his best man, his brother, Mr. John Martin.

The bride was charming in her lovely robe of white chiffon over white satin. Her pearl bodice was of real lace and the draped court train of satin was embroidered and edged with nearly.

The bride was charming in her lovely robe of white chiffon over white satin. Her pearl bodice was of real lace and the draped court train of satin was embroidered and edged with nearly.

The bride was charming in her lovely robe of white chiffon over white satin. Her pearl bodice was of real lace and the draped court train of satin was embroidered and edged with nearly the lovely robe of white chiffon over white satin. Her pearl bodice was of real lace and the draped court train of satin was embroidered and edged with nearly the lovely robe of white chiffon over white satin. Her pearl bodice was of real lace and the draped court train of satin was embroidered and edged with nearly the lovely robe of white chiffon over white satin. cious refreshments were served and

R. E. NECK

The Leading Photographer

Portraits, Views, Lantern Slides, Flash Lights and Commercial Work.

PUTNAM NATIONAL BANK

BUILDING CONTRACTOR

If you intend building in the near future, I will appreciate an opportunity to estimate on the job.

W. T. BOGART - - PALATKA, FLA

PALATKA AUTOMOBILE & SUPPLY COMPANY

Plumbing

Roofing

Pipe Fitting Bath Room Fixtures and Supplies

Phone 152.

Palatka, Florida

stow of Hastings received the guests on the piazza, and requested them to register in the bride's book. Mrs. S. J. Barstow and Mrs. Martin received in the parlors. In the dining room, Misses Stella and Winnifred Browning Thelms Hand Stella white satin. Her pearl bodice was of real lace and the draped court train of satin was embroidered and edged with pearls. Her tulle veil was caught with real orange blossoms, and she carried a bride's boquet of valley lillies and roses.

After the impressive ceremony, the happy couple received the congratulations of their friends, then proceed.

la, Miss Carrie Pelote of Am Miss Louiebelle Brown of Land Miss Thelma Hyers of Miss Mr. and Mrs. Harwood Rose